

Pre-Test

- 1. Studies which have examined prevalence rates of traumatic events within the general population have consistently found that between:
 -
 - a) 5 - 10% of individuals have experienced a traumatic event.
 - b) 11-25% of individuals have experienced a traumatic event.
 - c) 26-39% of individuals have experienced a traumatic event.
 - d) 40-70% of individuals have experienced a traumatic event.
 - e) 71-85% of individuals have experienced a traumatic event.

-
- 2. The most commonly reported form of child maltreatment is:
 -
 - a. Childhood physical abuse
 - b. Childhood sexual abuse
 - c. Childhood neglect
 - d. Childhood emotional abuse

-
- Many battered women say that the _____ is worse than the physical violence.
 -
 - a. social isolation
 - b. emotional abuse
 - c. “roller coaster” nature of the relationship
 - d. concerns of what neighbors are thinking about the violence

- 4. Which of the following helps to answer the question: "Why Does a Battered Woman Stay with her Partner?"
-
- a) economic dependence
- b) love
- c) fear that children will be harmed by not growing up with a father
- d) fear that the abuser will kill her if she leaves
- e) all of the above